PUBLIC NOTICE

Dated: 25.02.2021

Recruitment to Non-Teaching Posts in DU

The National Testing Agency (NTA) invites online applications on behalf of the University of Delhi (DU) from Indian Nationals possessing relevant qualification(s)/work experience for filling up various non-teaching posts in the University. Details regarding such posts, educational qualification, experience (wherever applicable) and other eligibility criteria, online application process, application fee, etc. are provided in the "Information Brochure and Guidelines" accessible at: <https://recruitment.nta.nic.in/> / www.du.ac.in.

The posts have been advertised (vide Empl. Advt. DU No. Estab.IV/290/2021 Dated: 23.02.2021) in a leading newspaper published from the Capital Cities of all States / UTs.

Interested and eligible Candidates may apply online for one or more posts by 16.03.2021 (upto 23:50 p.m.) on the above mentioned websites, by paying prescribed application fee (in multiple of no. of posts applied for) by 17.03.2021 (upto 23:50 p.m.).

Following may be noted by the interested Candidates:

- The online application has been designed in a manner that an applicant can apply for more than one posts, if the applicant wishes to do so. In that case, the Candidate has to select the same at the time of filling the application under the head 'Apply for'. The prescribed fee has to be paid online accordingly (multiple of no. of posts applied for).
- It is informed that a correction window will be opened during the period from 18.03.2021 to 20.03.2021, to enable the concerned candidates to correct any genuine mistake in their respective Online Application Form, during the said period only. No fresh applications will be allowed during this period.
- If a Candidate wishes to apply for multiple posts, but has inadvertently submitted the form for only one post, the applicant may correct her/his application form during the correction window. If multiple posts are selected, the applicant can pay the balance application fee accordingly during the said correction period.
